NEW DELHI, February 5: The Delhi University Cine Club was inaugurated yesterday evening by the deputy minister for information and broadcasting, Mr Arif Mohammed Khan, who called upon "intellectuals and creative persons" to contribute and enrich national life.

Mr Sydney Rebeiro, secretary of the Delhi University music arts and drama society and president of Conversazione, a non-political forum for discussion, the two sponsoring agencies, said that the cine club was a "follow-up of the B. V. Karanth national film policy committee recommendations".

A book exhibition and a panel discussion on British cinema was also simultaneously held.
