THE year began in the Delhi University as it ended — with uncertainties unlimited. From the appointment of a new Vice-Chancellor to the examination boycott to student violence to karamchhari kinetics to don demonstrations, it was questionings all the way.

Minus a Vice-Chancellor for the first quarter of 1980, the University made history when, with pro-Vice-Chancellor Dr U. N. Singh, Dean of Colleges Mahender Singh and South Campus Director Professor K. B. Rohatgi out of town, Registrar K. N. Thusu "acted" as VC for a day!

The convocation address by Prime Minister Indira Gandhi was characteristically succinct and exposed the evils in the sons-of-the-soil theory. The only honorary doctorate was awarded to British social worker, centenarian Welthy Fisher, who sought social emancipation for the underprivileged through the concerted efforts of the university community.

In a working academic session of 186 days, over 40 days were lost due to strikes and dharnas, mar-
