APRIL 25, 1979

Dear Mr. Rebeiro,

I am writing this letter to convey my deep apologies for being unable to attend the prize Distribution Function on April 16. As I told you that we had a meeting of the Academic Council on that day and if it were over in time I would definitely make it a point to come. But unfortunately, the meeting dragged on till late in the evening since it was considering a very sensitive issue. I had, therefore, to deny myself the pleasure and privilege of attending your function. This was my misfortune. Such relaxed moments come rarely and the fate did not permit me to enjoy. Such is the life of a Vice-Chancellor!

Thanking you and with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(R. C. Mehrotra)

P.S. After I had dictated this letter I have just received your letter of April 21. You are such a nice person that I really feel embarrassed even to thank you for all the good work that you are doing. May God give you sufficient strength to serve the society in as best a manner as you can. My blessings and good wishes are always with you in an abundant measure. You are most welcome to meet me any time you feel like. Just give a ring and come straight. It is indeed a pleasure to meet gentle, ~~sob~~ kind hearted and scholars like you. I have also received your souvenir brought out on the occasion of the Sports Prize Distribution Day. Kindly accept my greetings for having brought out in a very attractive way. Mr. Hasija tells me that you came twice to meet me, but I was not there. Bad luck again!
